- a. Updates from Minister Streicker

Charges at the landfill started last Saturday. There are some little issues that are being worked out.

Related to Covid-19 we are now in Phase 3. This coming Thursday during the check up with Mt Lorne, Minister Streicker will be on his way to Old Crow so the meeting might not happen.

Most of the things that they are working on right now are about epidemiology and the jurisdictions with Alaska.

People that can go to Alaska through Yukon need to have a documentation of work, or a proof that their primary residence is in Alaska.

In the near future, Yukon and Alaska will be sharing data such as license plate numbers. Alaska beefed up their fines.

People coming to Alaska have to have a negative test for Covid-19 in the last 72 hours otherwise they will be turned back. So YG will ask a proof of a Covid-19 test before they come into Canada so that they will not be turned back in Canada but stay in USA.

Indoor gathering allows 50 people now. Outdoor gathering allows 100 people. Few chances that the Yukon and USA border will open on August 21st.
